Tarryn Reeves is the CEO and Founder of Four Eagles Publishing and The Publishing House Concierge.

She works with high-level entrepreneurs to create best-selling books that act as lead magnets that grow their business.

She is a USA Today best-selling author and has produced 6 books that have hit the best-seller list on Amazon and has 7 more in the works.

She was born in Zimbabwe and was forced to flee due to political conflict. She has overcome PTSD, chronic depression and major anxiety. She was made redundant a week before finding out she was pregnant and started her business when her daughter was 6 weeks old.

Tarryn donates 1% of all turnover to environmental and social causes each year. All proceeds from the sales of her multi-author book projects get donated to charity. She aims to one day start a world-class anti-poaching unit in Africa.

Her goal is to become even bigger than Hay House!
